Built in angle cube??? I didn't think so. I believe it is a separate device. Correct me if I'm wrong please.

The built-in angle cube isn't ready for release yet. We're offering angle cubes to go with the upgraded arms. I think it will still be another 12 weeks or more before we have some handles with the cubes built in.

I know. I think she said 2-3 weeks. It's fine, Clay and I'm really happy they are selling so well.
