I am sharpening stuff...

The web interface is really secondary.

Isn't it?

Still not sure about the fixation, unless it really helps us learn, about sharpening, and more specificaly using the WEPS to make the edges of blades that we are proud of.

KARMA...HMMMMM,

not so much!

Watch the Waterstone thread...

Phil

I'm counting on you Curtis.

Perhaps a PM?

edit- Leo?

I don't notice anything new either.

Leo, what did your wicked mind come up with?

Does that come with a corporate credit card for expenses?

Entertaining and such.

Ah yes, I did notice that. Now I rule the world

Thanks for your confidence, Leo and Clay. I'll do my best to keep this forum as warm a place as you did, Leo. And a place where people can learn from each other and exchange innovative ideas.

Please stay with us for a long time, Leo. If it weren't for you, I might not have been here at all.

Hey Mark, thank you for all you do on the forum! And many, many thanks to Leo, without whom we might be wandering in the wilderness

That's a very true statement. I've said it before, but the reason I love this forum so much is not only that it's a warm place, but also that it's an open place where people come who are truly interested in knife sharpening and want to get the most out of it. Uttering new ideas and opinions also requires tolerance and listening to other people.

Without Leo this place wouldn't be like that. (And when I refer to the German knife forum, you know what I'm talking about, Leo .) Thanks Leo!
