I Airbrushed a knife case to a man, he said he wanted skulls and flames in only black and white. He wanted to have his strider there to protect ????????

what???

do you need to protect a strider knife?

That's some cool graphics!

The owner must be a collector of sorts or he never plans to use his Strider for other than light duty. To each their own.

EXCELLENT, thanks, I dunno where, but it is going somewhere. Is there some type of material that you can AB on that I can put on my car/motorcycle tank, etc. and it will be "hardy", i.e. stand up to rain, car wash, etc?
