Not sure if everyone but me saw this on the website... Clay has come out with a hunting style knife, with lights!...

Wicked Edge Illuminator

Take a look!

Hot dang! Is there no end to your ingenuity Clay! I am sure there will be guides and hunters everywhere who will bless you for making that 'dusk-turning-to-darkness' rendering much easier.

Good stuff mate!

I have been imagining just that - when you look straight at the knife with the lights on, it's blindingly bright, and they're only low output lights. As you said, with high output LEDs, it would be really interesting.

chuckle

And don't forget the tazer add-on, nitrogen injector or decoder.

Now what else...
